

INSTRUCTOR PROFILE

MS. Hayes taught English for 35 years.

When she taught high school English, she endeavored to provide her students with a quality education in a public school setting.

She has taught English in every grade level and at every skill level. She has also taught AP instructors on the graduate school level.

As a result of having taught high school seniors for over 20 years, she is well-prepared to assist students with all phases of the college admission process. She is able to assist with college application essays, activities' charts, scholarship essays, and scholarship interviews.

Because she was educated in both private and public schools, she is equipped to understand and address the needs of students who have studied in schools with varying levels of scholastic rigor.

If you're looking for a tutor who is able to work with students of varied backgrounds and skill levels, please contact us.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Rated Proficient English Language Arts Coach by Michigan Department of Education
- AP English Literature and Composition Examination reader
- SAT Writing examination reader
- College Board consultant
- AP English Literature and Composition instructor
- Grammar for College instructor
- British literature instructor
- American literature instructor
- English Language Arts Consultant Since 2007
- African American literature instructor

TARGETED SKILLS OVERVIEW

Ms. Mignon Hayes, Director will assist your child in bridging any gaps in English language arts skills.

- Composition writing
- AP Literature and Composition essay writing
- ACT essay writing
- SAT essay writing
- ACT English
- PSAT Writing
- Close reading of literature
- College application essays
- College Scholarship essays

For information about available tutoring support, please contact Ms. Hayes at mhayes@al-e-r-t.org

What service may be available to your students?

- AP English Literature and Composition essay writing
- ACT essay writing
- College application essay writing
- College application activities' charts and resumes
- College scholarship essays
- Understanding of grammar and punctuation fundamentals
- Increased confidence in oral communication
- Insightful close reading

Tutorial Services for Bridging Academic Gaps

A great place to learn

A-L-E-R-T